

Dr. Colbey Reid presents

Indigeneity and the 'Domestic Posthuman:' Reevaluating the Scale, Pace, Texture, and Place of Technology

Tuesday, April 18 ~ 6:30pm - 8pm
SHI Clan House, Walter Soboleff Building

Dr. Colbey Reid discusses the idea of "lo-tek," an anti-primitivist conceptualization of indigenous innovation, to reorient our understanding of the design futures forecast by technology and human-technology relations toward humanity, conviviality, and ecological longevity.
